EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

2. The application has been amended as follows:

This application is in condition for allowance except for the presence of claims 1 to 5 and 37 to 50 non-elected without traverse. Accordingly, claims 1-5 and 37-50 have been cancelled.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record fails to disclose or suggest "a probe having two drive coils, the drive coils being mounted in the probe and being oriented so that a magnetic field produced by the first drive coil in response to an alternating current being coupled to the first drive coil is orthogonal to a magnetic field produced by the second drive coil in response to an alternating current being coupled to the second drive coil." The prior art, particularly U.S. Patent No. 5,44,503 to Hollstien, discloses that the drive coils provide parallel magnetic fields. It would have not have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to simply change the angles of the drive coils, since applicant disclosed in the specification that the orthogonal placement of the drive coils allows a target point, an axis alignment and a guide rotation to be computed by data obtained from each drive coil individually when an alternating current is supplied (Specification Page 7, line 22 – page 8, line 19). Therefore, the claim is allowable over the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
